ALBANY, Feb. 29.—Major-Gen. John F. O'Ryan, commanding the State Na-tional Guard, came to Albany to-day to consider the question of military training in the schools of the State, which is now in the process of formulation into a final compromise bill intended to meet the views of the Education Department

The sub-committee of the Thompson legislative committee had its daily row yesterday with T. H. Gillespie and his representatives over producing books and papers of T. A. Gillespie & Co. which cover the transfer of funds from the New York to the Pittsburg office of the company, and vice versa. Paul D. Cravath appeared before the sub-committee again yesterday to urge on Mr. Feinberg and his associates the strength of position taken by young Mr. Gillespie, who is vice-president of the company.

Mr. Cravath explained again that the company has nothing pertaining to anything coming within the scope of the committee's investigation that it desires to conceal, but he said one experience of a misuse of confidential matter was enough to convince him that the committee.
